

NEW BOOK

There is no magic. There is no Mr. Spock's Secret Vulcan Knockout Technique. But there is ISC Control Points, a humane, medically reviewed, and statistically analyzed system of physical control laid out in an easy to understand, hands-on book entitled:

ISC Control Points: The Art and Science of Physical Control

Edited by:

E. Leslie Knight, Ph.D. FACSM & Ron Kazoroski, MSPA, CPM

Contributors are among the world's foremost authorities in their respective areas of expertise including:

Dr. Sue Aull, Dr. Bob Baum, Bob Bragg, Prof. Art Cohen, Dr. John Haldeman, Prof. Yoichi Kozuma, Mr. Nicholas LaCarruba, Charles Mader, Dr. Winston Morris, Harvey Newton, Dr. John Paul, Dr. Matt Werd, George Williams

This 204 page how-to book containing dozens of photos is for law enforcement officers, security personnel, educators, martial artists, and anyone who needs to know the art of applying physical control techniques and the science of how and why they work.

Content includes the origin, development, and explanation of ISC Control Points; control point research; legal issues; the application of control points for law enforcement, educators, SRO's, security personnel, and martial artists; medical and related issues, including physical and mental conditioning.

Cost: $38.00 plus $5.00 shipping – no COD's.
